Understanding Depression and Finding Hope Gary Kinnaman, Richard M.D. M.D. Jacobs

For anyone who suffers from depression or knows someone who does, Understanding Depression and Finding Hope is the book they've been looking for. Written by a pastor and a medical doctor who have been personally impacted by depression, this book confronts the myths that have developed around the disease and offers strategies for every area of life--physical, psychological, and spiritual--that it touches.

A great resource for those who give counsel and support to others--pastors, counselors, small group leaders, teachers, concerned friends, and family members.
