Think of this little book as a warm hug from a friend.

-Author Lenore Buth-

God made you a mom. He placed you and your family together, and nothing else has the same significance. You love your children most truly when you help them develop solid faith and sound values; when you help them become stronger from the inside out. And what about you? Where does your strength come from? Your heavenly Father supplies you with what you need for each day. Let this little book be a word of encouragement and the warm reminder of God's promise and provision.

This is not a book of techniques but rather principles. Each of the 45 devotions takes just two or three minutes to complete and includes a supporting scripture verse and a thought to ponder. Its convenient size allows it to easily be tucked in a purse, diaper bag, or car door pocket when mom finds a few spare minutes in her schedule to read.
