WHO IS JESUS? L.A. LENISTON

Jesus is the most controversial person ever born! My goal is to show you Jesus in His humanity and in His holiness. To show you Jesus as a person so connected to His Heavenly Father that you have to be awed by His relationship and bond to obey and bring glory to God only. I had searched for a book to share with friends that covered all this information in an easy to read and easy to assimilate manner but could not find one. It is not my intention to preach or hypothesize but to share the facts as the Bible gives them. In this book each chapter is a unit in itself. It's not written as a story to be read straight thru, it is separate chapters with subtitles within so you can enjoy and absorb the parts you would be interested in. I've used quotes from the Bible to tell the story; I didn't use my words when it was already written perfectly by New and Old Testament writers. Using various translations the narrative became clearer. The author has been a Christian since a young child who went through every stage of growing and maturing in faith. In association with wonderful Bible teachers over the years, the revelation of the greatness of God became real. Sharing this good news in book form was directed by the Holy Spirit and it is only with His help could this book have been written. Delving into the life of Jesus was an exciting adventure in the Bible: checking and crosschecking on the different aspects of His life and ministry; His personality and relationships; His deity and his humanity was life changing. I hope it will be for you, too.
