Thank God for My Stepfather Elsie St. Felix-Raglin

A family is made up of people who love each other. Some families are made up of grandparents and grandchildren. Other homes may only have a mom and kids or a dad and kids. Still others are blended families with stepdads or stepmoms. No matter what your family looks like, when you love each other with the love of God, you will find happiness and security. "Thank God for My Stepfather" is the fictional story of Bill and Buddy, a stepdad and his son. Read about their love and care for one another, their separation, and their joyous reunion within the pages of this fully-illustrated children's book.
