Winning Souls for Christ: How You Can Become an Effective Apostle Raoul Plus

Lead people to Christ - without preaching at them You may not be ready to stand on the corner and preach, but in Winning Souls for Christ you'll find practical ways that even you can become an effective apostle, primarily by forming your own inner self so that your life itself becomes a testimonial for Christ. The author, Fr. Raoul Plus, shows you: How to make yourself and the gospel message attractive to unbelievers How to prepare spiritually to spread the gospel How to handle rejection and discouragement In other words, this book shows you how to win souls the way Jesus did. That's right: Fr. Plus insists on taking our call to imitate Christ at face value. You'll be surprised by Fr. Plus's explanations of how we can do so - and you'll be informed by a wealth of practical ways to spread the Faith. Among the many things Winning Souls for Christ reveals to you: Why every Christian - including you! - is called to be an apostle The world: how you must shun it and how you must love it in order to win souls The five most valuable qualities of an apostle: how many do you have? The one virtue that you must have in order to convince anybody of anything - including the truth of the gospel! Why you must never fear to be known as a Christian, no matter where you are or who you are with Resistance: why it's inevitable in the work of every apostle - and how you can learn to meet it well How prayerful must an apostle be? The answer from Jesus Himself Silence and solitude: why they're indispensable for apostolic work Why God may allow you to think you've failed even when you haven't The difficulty of Christianity: why it's more attractive than a lax, limp spirituality that neither challenges nor invigorates the soul Test yourself: do you secretly long for sin? How to root out this creeping vice, which kills the soul of the apostle And an abundance of other practical insights to help you bring order to your own soul so that you can bring others to Christ
