So You're a Kingdom Kid: The Blessings and Challenges of Growing Up in the Church Andrew Quint
Hey You! Are your parents Christians? Has church always been a meaningful part of your family life? Were you a biblical scholar by the time you hit the third grade? Do you ever feel constricted by the rules from your parents and the church? Do you want a deep and real relationship with God? If you answered yes to some of these questions, this book may be for you. Writing from one Kingdom Kid to another, Drew Quint shares his victories and defeats as a teen, both before and after becoming a disciple. He's real, and he will help you to be real too. This book is an insightful read primarily for teens, but college students, older Kingdom Kids, and parents of teens will also gain perspective from reading it. The "Get Real" section after every chapter will help you to be honest with yourself about where you are spiritually and where you want to be.
