Persuasione (Libri da premio) (Italian Edition) Jane Austen

La preziosa qualità dei dialoghi, l'alternarsi della narrazione in tersa persona con il discorso diretto, il tipico stile epistolare, la precisa descrizione della vita e dei personaggi della provincia inglese all'epoca delle guerre napoleoniche: ritroverete tutti questi tipici elementi della scrittura di Jane Austen in 'Persuasione', romanzo del 1818 che racconta della pressione, della sudditanza emotiva nel dover subire decisioni prese da altri (o di rifiutarsi di sottostare a questa dinamica). E' la storia di Anne Elliot, indotta a rifiutare la corte del capitano Wentworth, a portare il piano narrativo dell'opera proprio dove vuole l'autrice: a raccontarci di una realtà nella quale l'egoismo delle classi più abbienti e l'avidità dei nobili sono gli ostacoli da superare per raggiungere la felicità materiale ma soprattutto sentimentale.
