The Rugged Trail Stanley A. Fulham

"The Rugged Trail" invites you to a moment in history when the agricultural technologies of the early 20th Century threatened the thriving horse industry of the Great Central Plains of North America.

Author Stan Fulham tells the story of the men and women who lived through and struggled to overcome, the spiritual challenges and turmoil of change during this key turning point in the history of the Great Plains.

The captivating story follows protagonist Bronc Coleman, the old Texan cowboy, who captures a herd of wild horses and their great stallion Apollo and brings them from the Alberta foothills for auction to the prairie farmers at Fort Sabre.

Note-The book has full colour gloss laminated cover and contains 11 illustrations and sketches depicting the key events of the novel.
