I have been teaching traffic school for over nine years. Since that time I have given away valuable tips and hints on how to handle your traffic ticket situations. I wrote Traffic School Samurai for this purpose. My favorite topic was discussing how to remove a traffic moving violation from your driving record. I provide basic and candid information for the reader to use. My approach is to treat like you are my friend and give it to you straight so you can be successful and save you money and stress. I have written about things in Traffic School Samurai that have been applied and work in the real world.
