Une vie dans le siècle: Tome 1. L'enfance bousculée (ESSAI ET DOC) (French Edition) Bogdan Broniewski

Fils aîné d'une famille prospère d'ingénieurs et de propriétaires terriens, Bogdan Broniewski, né en 1922, grandit entre Lublin et Varsovie, dans le climat heureux des derniers grands domaines polonais. Si chasses, excursions et jeux occupent ses journées, il est également témoin de l'entrée de la Pologne dans le monde moderne, par les métamorphoses de la vie sociale et l'arrivée de l'aviation et de l'automobile.

L'invasion de la Pologne par l'Allemagne transforme radicalement son existence : les Broniewski choisissent de fuir vers la France par l'Orient-Express, abandonnant derrière eux leur fortune et l'avenir planifié de leurs enfants. Dans l'impossibilité d'atteindre leur destination première, l'Espagne, ils s'installent sur la Côte d'Azur, tandis que l'adolescent Bogdan part à Lyon achever ses études d'ingénieur. Il y traversera la guerre, observateur des difficultés de la vie quotidienne et du destin de ses compatriotes.

Laissé indemne par la guerre, il débutera dans une France en reconstruction une vie professionnelle prometteuse chez Alstom, qui lui ouvrira les portes du monde.
