Voices of the Spirit (Classic Reprint) George Matheson

Therefore in every one of these meditations I have tried to express a distinct idea. I have endeavoured to exhibit in their fulness and in their variety the different phases of the spiritual life and the different emotions which are awakened by them. I have not sought out these phases ;I have allowed them to find me. I have come to the task with no previous system in my mind ;I have just walked beside the stream and taken my impressions from its windings. The stream b which I have walked is theB
