The Wages of Sin (Lance Goodman) James H Waggoner

The Wages of Sin is James H. Waggoner's powerful sequel to Empty Soul for Hire, the alarming tale of greed and vengeance in Los Angeles. Once more, the author's focus is on Lance Goodman, a vicious freelance avenger who makes big money torturing and killing the enemies of wealthy clients. Lance is a man adrift in a world with no safe harbor. His cover as a legitimate businessman shields him from the law but he remains at the mercy of a swarm of demons that torment his barren soul. Abandoned in childhood by his uncaring father and resentful of his weak and needful mother, Lance grew up desperately wanting to be loved but unable to love others. His fumbling attempts at love often backfire. His occupational paranoia makes honesty impossible. In desperation, he develops a risky plan to create a family by abducting the young daughters of one of his victims is doomed to failure. The Wages of Sin delivers an ominous warning: The unloved soul is easy prey to sins of malice and cruelty. With the inevitability of greek tragedy, Lance Goodman's demons propel his story to an explosive and bloody climax.
