I cavalieri delle torri ardenti (Italian Edition) Ignazio Burgio

Nella Sicilia d'inizio '400 dopo la misteriosa morte del Re Martino si snodano le disavventure della sua giovane vedova, la Principessa Bianca di Navarra, inseguita per tutta l'isola dal vecchio conte catalano Bernardo Caprone, follemente innamorato di lei. Tra castelli assediati e cruente battaglie campali in cui si affrontano le opposte fazioni fedeli all'uno o all'altra, la Sicilia deve anche fronteggiare la minaccia dell'invasione del Re di Napoli. Ma chi muove realmente le fila dei drammatici e grotteschi avvenimenti sullo scacchiere siciliano? Chi ha realmente avvelenato il Re Martino? Quali occulti messaggi di fuoco rimbalzano da un castello all'altro della Sicilia? E dove si trova il perduto Diploma Aureo dell'Imperatore Federico II?

In questo appassionante romanzo, ispirato ad eventi storici realmente accaduti, si trova tutto ciò che ogni buon lettore può desiderare: storia, passioni, intrighi, continui colpi di scena, comicità esilarante e persino un pizzico di paranormale.

"...Trattasi di un romanzo storico di inedita fattura. Documentatissimo sino alla pignoleria rispetto ai dettagli ambientali, culturali, storici della Sicilia del 1400, si svolge in una narrazione sciolta e accattivante sin dalle prime pagine. Avvincente e affascinante, il libro compendia fatti e circostanze dotati di un alto grado di verosimiglianza con la narrazione di vicende umane singolari e collettive. Burgio rilegge e innova, in Sicilia, il genere del romanzo storico, senza mai scivolare nella pedanteria..."

Paul Devins, storico ed archeologo statunitense.
